

WCAMPWA Training
Tuesday April 5, 2022
Village of Rye Brook Public Works Operations Facility
Michal Nowak, Superintendent of Public Works

Supervisors and Foreman Training

Summary of Event

Total Signed Up	38
Total Attendees	29
Municipalities Represented	11
No Show Municipalities	2
Number of Sessions	3

Employee Performance and Discipline - Regina Williams

Traffic Signs and Latest Advances – Glen Abrams

July 12, 2006 Westchester County Tornado, A Case Study – James Maxwell

Start Time: 9:00 AM

End Time: 12:15 PM

WCAMPWA Members Assisting:

Michal Nowak, WCAMPWA President, Village of Rye Brook

Jim Maxwell, WCAMPWA Education Co-Chair, Retired

Tom Meier, WCAMPWA Education Co-Chair, City of Yonkers

Jeffrey Coleman, Membership Chair, Village of Scarsdale

Peter Sciliano, Salt Chair, Retired

Lou Martirano, Website Chair, Village of Tarrytown

Breakfast - Coffee and Bagels

Lunch – Wedges, Salad, Soda, Chips

Food Cost: $600.00

Westchester County Association of Municipal Public Works Administrators
Training Questionnaire

1. What types of training do you typically attend annually? Flagging Safety, Road Maintenance Confined Space, Snow Plowing, Trucks Equipment, Supervisor, water treatment, chlorine safety, Employee Harassment, Suicide, Discipline, FEMA

2. How many hours of “away from the office training” typically works best for you?
circle all that apply

1 hour, 2 hour, ½ day, full day, 2 days, more than 2 days

3. Do you have any training certifications for your particular job or specialty? If yes, please list. Fleet Maintenance, Confined Space, Supervisors, Water Plant Operator, Electrician

4. What types of training would you like to see more of: circle all that apply supervision, stormwater, emergency management, fleet management, construction supervision, staff supervision, snow plowing, bucket truck, loader, trenching other

Does your organization have an annual budget for staff training? YES

5. Additional Comments _____

Thank you for helping us determine future training program considerations.